

Joey Simmons

Joey Simmons has been involved in coaching for 35 years. He has been married for 34 years and has three children and six grandchildren. His select basketball success includes six AAU National Championships as well as four AAU National Runner-up Championships. In five short years of coaching high school basketball he has won over 127 games, with three Final 4 appearances in the TAPPS State Finals and two Elite 8 finishes.

In 2001 his Junior Olympic team traveled to Europe, representing AAU, to compete against European Olympians. The team went 4-0 in their travels around Europe. He is presently the owner of Premier Basketball Report, a national scouting service and runs the Premier Basketball Tournaments which includes the Heart of Texas Showcase in April and the Super 32 and Super 64 National Championship Tournament in July. He is also presently the Athletic Director and Girls Head Basketball Coach at St. Joseph High School in Bryan.

Joey Simmons is also the McDonald's All-American girl's representative for the State of Texas and serves on the selection committee of the McDonald's All-American girls teams. In just three short years the Premier Basketball Report Scouting Service has become one of the leading scouting services in the country.
